FELL FROM HIS BICYCLE

Shoe Merchant Receives Probably Fatal Injuries by Tumble From Wheel.

SAVED GIRL AND BABY

Hubbard Feild Among the Passengers of Ill-Fated Steamer General Slocum.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, Va., June 21.—Mr. L. C. Nunnally, a prominent shoe merchant of this city, was seriously injured this morning by falling from his bicycle. He was riding down 19th Street on his way to his store, and when near Bank Street his bicycle was seen to careen, and he fell head forward to the street. Several persons who saw him fall ran to his assistance, and when they raised him from the street blood was issuing from his ears and forehead and his face was badly cut. He remained unconscious for several hours, and physicians are not yet able to tell what the result may be. The fall broke his collarbone and it is believed fractured his skull.

SAVED TWO LIVES.
Mr. Hubbard Feild, a son of Colonel E. M. Feild, of this city, was among the passengers on the ill-fated General Slocum. Mr. Feild recently returned from South America, where he is connected with the American Fruit Company. He reached New York two days before the disaster, and accompanied a young friend on the excursion. When he saw there was no chance to be saved on board the boat, he threw off his coat and shoes and leaped into the water, taking with him a little girl whom he chanced to meet. A mother threw her babe to him in the water, and after heroic effort he reached shore, saving both the girl and the baby. The mothers of the child and the young friend whom he accompanied are among the missing.

DEED FROM THE CITY.
A deed from the city of Petersburg to the United States government was admitted to record in the clerk's office in this city today, transferring all the land acquired for use in diverting the fresh water of the river. A draft for $6,400 was received to reimburse the city for the cost of the property.

Only members of the present Common Council participated in the caucus last night. It was about 1 o'clock this morning before the body adjourned. The following nominations were among those made, and the officers will be elected at the July meeting:

President of Council, N. T. Patterson; Auditor, G. B. Gill; City Attorney, George Mason; Register of Water Works, James Brockwell; Clerk of the Markets, James A. Pulley; Keeper of Blandford Cemetery, W. A. Franklin; City Physicians, Drs. Preston Hoy, R. H. Jones and William Shipp; Chief of Fire Department, E. V. Farley; Port Warden, W. N. Mays; Collector of Delinquent Taxes, W. L. Smith; City Engineer, T. R. Dunn.

COURT DECREE.
Judge Watson entered a decree in the Chancery Court today dissolving the bond in the injunction case of John W. Richardson against the Camp Manufacturing Company and R. Butterworth. The court did not pass on the motion to dissolve the injunction.

Mr. J. C. Rowell, contractor in this city, has been awarded the contract for the improvements at the First Baptist Church.

Mr. John M. Love, of this city, who has been graduated with honors from the medical department of Johns Hopkins Hospital, is a visit to relatives in Petersburg. He will spend a few weeks in rest before taking up his special work.

Mr. H. C. Roper has been quite sick at his home in this city. He will leave tomorrow for Buffalo, N. Y., for the benefit of his health.

FIVE-YEAR SENTENCE.

Convicted of Criminal Assault on Feeble-Minded Girl.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHATHAM, Va., June 21.—Dave Guinn was today convicted of criminally assaulting Miss Maggie Dod, a girl of feeble mind, and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. Guinn is married and has several children.

Testimony was completed in the cases of Clarence Perrow, for murder, and Brown, for malicious wounding, and are now with the jury who are in charge of depositions.

The Charles W. Oliver case will be called first Wednesday and will require several days for trial.

CHIEF OF POLICE SENT TO GRAND JURY

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEWPORT NEWS, Va., June 21.—Chief of Police William Williamson of the Warwick county police force, was tonight sent on to the grand jury on the charge of felonious assault growing out of a fight the chief had with former county officer Jesse Nettles. The latter was badly

GRADUATING CLASS OF THE VIRGINIA MILITARY INSTITUTE FOR 1904

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LEXINGTON, Va., June 21.—The graduating class at the Virginia Military Institute this year is the largest in years, and the members are a fine body of young men. With the four years of military training, which they have enjoyed, consisting of rigid discipline, regular hours and thorough work, the West Point of the South will this year graduate as strong a class as any in her past history. And it is interesting to note that the graduates of this school are in demand.

General Scott Shipp, the superintendent, is unable to supply the demand made for men bearing the diploma of the Virginia Military Institute. They are wanted in professional and industrial positions, and many of them receive appointments in the regular United States army. Following is the list of this year's graduating class:

John E. Bice, Washington, D. C., president final ball, 1903, associate editor "The Bomb," civil engineering course.
Harry C. Calcutt, Dyersburg, Tenn., civil engineering course.
Ellis C. Caldwell, Elkhart, Ind., class historian, associate editor "The Bomb," chemical course.
Ryland P. Camp, Franklin, Va., electrical engineering course.
Ralph B. Claggett, Lexington, Ill., second lieutenant final ball, 1903, foot-ball team 1902, 1903, 1904, chemical course.
Bailey T. Clarke, Owensboro, Ky., civil engineering course.
Bryce T. Conlyn, Baltimore, Md., substitute base-ball team 1904, Glee Club, civil engineering course.

John W. Crowder, Dallas, Tex., first lieutenant final ball, 1903, 1904, 1905, 1906, 1907, 1908, 1909, 1910, 1911, 1912, 1913, 1914, 1915, 1916, 1917, 1918, 1919, 1920, 1921, 1922, 1923, 1924, 1925, 1926,
